

"TREK & JAZZ"

MORE THAN JAZZ

Option A: "Gola del Furlo and the flight of the golden eagle"

An itinerary in the State Reserve of Gola del Furlo, well known for its beautiful landscapes and natural attractions including a beautiful canyon. Here you can find a wide range of animal species, among which the golden eagle, which nests in the sheer cliffs of the gorge. The route consists of a ring of about 10 km, reaching the summit meadows of the mount Paganuccio, where a 360° panoramic view, from the Adriatic sea to the Apennines will be enjoyed! Length: approximately 10 km - Vertical gap: about 500 mt. - Difficulty: medium - Tour of about 6 - 7 hours; Packed lunch; Meeting point: on site

Option B: San Bartolo Park and its cliff

The San Bartolo Regional Park is characterized by a cliff sheering over the sea: a unique landscape of sea and hills in a mix of colors and scents, arriving at the villages of Fiorenzuola di Focara and Casteldimezzo through woods and vineyards. During the stroll it could happen, though not easy, to observe the flight of the peregrine falcon, with its swooping flight to capture its preys! Length: approximately 12 km - Vertical gap: about 200 mt. - Difficulty: easy - Tour of about 5 hours; Packed lunch; Meeting point: on site
